We are delighted to welcome back Dr David Bellingham, art historian, author and Programme Director for the master's degree in Art Business at Sotheby's Institute of Art, London

David's lecture about the current exhibition at the British Museum (until 24 October) will remind us what a wonderful period the first century CE was for the arts and architecture. This lecture investigates Nero the man and the myth. Nero Claudius Augustus Germanicus (37-68 CE) was proclaimed Roman Emperor at the early age of 16 following the death of his adoptive father Claudius.
